CRAB ORCHARD.

Sam Cochran is sick at Cedar Creek. Good health, pretty weather and busy farmers.

We understand that John, Sam and Dudley Holmes are going to have the fine body of timber known as the "Hurricane Woods," sawed into lumber. This is the finest body of timber any where near here.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the year was the St. Patrick eve social given in honor of the Euchre Club, by Misses Pearl and Clara Collier at their pretty home. Cards and other games were indulged in—suitable to the occasion, such as kissing the Blarney Stone and answering questions on Ireland's history. Two prizes were offered, one to the lady answering the most questions, which was won by Miss Fannie Redd, and Dr. Phillips won the gentleman's prize. Each guest received a souvenir card representing the Shamrock, tied with a bow of green ribbon and bearing the name of the guest. After enjoying music and the games, the guests repaired to the spacious dining room and sat down to a feast of good things fit for the gods. The color scheme was carried out in pink and green, the latter color predominating. Fancy cakes, iced to represent the Shamrock in green, all the luscious fruits to be had in Louisville, including pears, Malaga grapes and strawberries, composed a part of the menu. Those who were fortunate enough to be present are loud in their praises of the pleasant occasion.

A "Pome" on "Uncle Dink."

You know Dink Farmer he used to farm Out on the Knob's highway, He got tired of planting corn And raising oats and hay.

And now says he, I'm getting old, My step is slow and frail, I'll make a change for a while By keeping the Stanford jail.

Hurrah! says he, I've won at last, The race I've run so long, I'll hasten home to tell dear wife And the rest of my happy throng.

That we can go and live in town And hear the town clock strike, And if we want to take a spin We'll have the smooth turnpike.

I am a farmer by name and trade, Have raked the sweat from my brow, I'll always thank the people at heart For the position I occupy now.

And now to my opponents who got lost In the dust from my running feet, Drop in and I will welcome you For there's no disgrace in defeat.

F. L. DAVIS.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Feserson, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." New Stanford Drug Co.

A Kentucky girl whose father was an undertaker was sent to a fashionable New York boarding school for a finishing term. One day one of the girls asked her what business her father was in, and, fearing she would lose caste if she told the truth, she carelessly answered, "Oh, my father's a Southern planter."—Lippincott's.

KINGSVILLE.

Major Smith bought a buggy horse of Birt McKinley.

Grace Marie Thompson is quite sick. Mrs. Dr. Acton has grip.

Mrs. Nancy Sims, aged 70, died Saturday night and was buried Monday in the Sims cemetery.

A North-bound freight train wrecked here last week, ditching two cars and damaging others. No one was hurt.

Kingsville seems to be coming to the front. There are three new dwellings almost completed and others being re-paired.

Owing to the inclement weather and other causes there was not a very large crowd at the oyster supper given by the K. O. T. M. here Saturday night.

W. M. Bramburg, agricultural superintendent of the C. N. O. & T. P. Ry., will speak at this place on Thursday, April 1. All those interested in farming should hear him.

Will Leach is at home for a few days. He has been working as operator in Tennessee. Miss Laura Dye is visiting the homefolks here. Miss Nannie Fletcher, of Somerset, is giving music lessons to a number of Kingsville's most talented boys and girls.

A large crowd attended the burial of Tusco Waters Sunday. Waters was formerly of this place but has been for the last 15 years a locomotive engineer in the South. He was killed in Louisiana by a man named Long, who claims he acted in self defense. Long was acquitted at his examining trial. Among those who attended his burial were Holls May, of Somerset, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Reynolds and W. L. McCarty, of Stanford.

To the Voters of the 13th Judicial District.

HARRISBURG, March 23.—For some reasons I would ask the nomination of my party for circuit judge, and yet for stronger ones I feel I should refrain from seeking it, and retire to private life at this time. Those who are nearest to me are insistent, and I have concluded, after careful consideration, not to offer. I shall take my place, as formerly, in the party ranks, with the hope that I may be of some service there. I shall never cease to labor for what I believe to be the cause of the people and the best interests of my party. I can not express the deep appreciation I entertain for the exalted honor you have bestowed upon me, and I shall cherish with lasting devotion the happy friendships I have formed throughout the district. W. C. BELL.

Near Death In Big Pond.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. works wonders in Cougts and Colds, Sore Lungs, Hemorrhages, La Grippe, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50¢ and 81¢. Trial bottle free. Cochran at Covington issued an injunction against members of the Mine Workers' International Union, forbidding them to use money in seeking to prevent or persuade employees of a mine in which a strike has been declared by the union, from working for the owners of the mine. The injunction is one of the phases of the labor troubles in Stearns, where trouble occurred on Christmas day.

Willie Whitla has identified the man and woman under arrest at Cleveland as the persons who kidnapped him. There is considerable mystery surrounding the case. It is alleged that the woman is well known to the family.

The lad was put on a street car by one of his captors, who paid his fare, and walked into the hotel lobby asking for his father. The youngster said he was well treated and seemed to have no realization of the dreadful predicament in which he had been. He described as well as he could the places to which he had been taken.

THERE is further indication at the White House that President Taft in making Federal appointments in the South intends to consult as far as possible the wishes of the Senators from the States in which the offices are to be filled. In pursuance of this policy he had a lengthy interview with Senator Edley D. Smith, of South Carolina, and it was said he would also consult with Senator Tillman regarding South Carolina offices. Mr. Taft has also notified Senator Bailey that his wishes would be consulted along with those of his colleague regarding Texas appointments. The same rule, it is declared, will apply to all Southern States.

A BILL is before Congress providing that a tax of $2 be levied on every deadly weapon, such as pistols, dirk knives and brass knuckles, manufactured and sold within the United States. This would have little or no effect on those who would buy such weapons. The vicious would not think of the extra $2 when he wanted to get even with or "hold-up" somebody. It would be better to bring about a strict enforcement of the law against carrying deadly weapons concealed.

ALMOST everybody will be glad to know that the kidnapers of Willie Whitla, the Sharon, Pa., child, have been arrested and are safe behind the bars. It is to be hoped they will be given a speedy trial and the limit of the law. FEARING that the kidnapers of Willie Whitla may find imitators, Chief of Police Shippy, of Chicago, issued an order that policemen should watch all schools with especial scrutiny. The board of education also has ordered that no child be allowed to leave school except by personal permission of the principal.
